AnMed Health Foundation's signature fundraising event celebrates its silver anniversary

(Anderson, S.C. – Jan. 4, 2019) – The AnMed Health Foundation's Camellia Ball, the premier charitable event of the Electric City, celebrates its 25th anniversary this year.

The Camellia Ball, which began in 1994, has raised more than $2.5 million to meet some of the most vital needs in the community. For the past 18 years, the black-tie event has benefited AnMed Health's Pediatric Therapy Works, a group dedicated to providing specialized therapy for children with developmental delays and disorders. Thousands of children have been able to reach their full potential as a result of the support from the Camellia Ball.

Glenn Constructors will present the 25th Camellia Ball at The Bleckley Station in Anderson, S.C. on Saturday, February 2. This year's theme is "An Elegant Evening in Winter's Green." Tickets are on sale now at www.camelliaball.com. For questions, contact the AnMed Health Foundation at 864.512.1098.

The AnMed Health Foundation helps ensure that the people we serve, and especially the less fortunate, have access to quality health and medical services. The AnMed Health Foundation is a 501(c) (3) not-for-profit organization that provides fundraising support for community programs and initiatives at AnMed Health. The Foundation welcomes donations from individuals, families, and corporations to further our mission and to ensure that AnMed Health can continue to provide services that improve the health and lives of the people in our community.
