

Special Notice

Visitor Restrictions

For the health of our patients, staff and community, we ask all visitors voluntarily to stay away from the hospital if possible.

Our community is experiencing a surge in flu and stomach virus cases.

AnMed Health infection prevention experts urge visitors to take precautions to avoid spreading influenza and other respiratory illnesses. Precautions to prevent spread of gastrointestinal distress are similar: keep hands washed and limit contact with other people.