AnMed Health allows one support person for inpatients

(Anderson, S.C. – Aug. 24, 2020) – Beginning Wednesday, August 26, AnMed Health will allow one support person to visit with a patient during the hours of 2 – 6:30 p.m. daily. The patient support person may not switch out with other people. The support person will be screened at the door and an appropriate mask will be required upon entry. Individuals who do not have masks will be provided with one. Only one support person is allowed per patient.

The support person must remain in the patient's room and wear a mask to protect the patient and the staff from outside exposure during the COVID-19 pandemic.
