AnMed Health and AnMed Health Cannon
To have Presence 2019 Rose Parade

(Anderson, S.C. – Dec. 27, 2018) – AnMed Health has joined with hospitals across South Carolina and the nation to be a part of the 2019 Donate Life Rose Parade® float.

For their continued support of organ, eye and tissue donation, hospital leaders were given the opportunity to write a dedication on one of the thousands of rose vials in the “Dedication Garden” on the Donate Life float. AnMed Health CEO Bill Manson and AnMed Health Cannon CEO Brandon Clary participated by personally dedicating a rose.

Each year, the Donate Life float honors donors for their gift of life while showcasing the miracle of transplantation through recipients.

The 2019 Donate Life Rose Parade float can be seen in the 130th Rose Parade® starting at 11 a.m., January 1 on ABC, NBC, HGTV, Hallmark Channel and Univision.
